Mr. Jesse B. Ferguson's Speech at Springfield,

For the Daily Patriot.

Mr. Jesse B. Ferguson opened the canvass at Springfield on Monday. Notwithstanding the farmers are very busy with the oat harvest, he had a fair audience. The people listened with profound interest, and were much gratified. He ignored all personal claims, and discussed the great issues involved in the Southern Revolution. He labored to show the necessity of a united people to preserve the free and independent action the States have taken. We hope he will furnish his speech for publication, for men of all parties would be benefitted by reading it.

THE MULE RACE .- On the 4th inst., on the race track, an individual over twentyone years old, borrowed from a gentleman $10, with the promise that he would re-pay it the next morning; he has not done so. The person who borrowed the money in known. and is requested to leave the same at the Gazette or this office, and no questions will be july-12.
